

Charles Dudouyt, sideboard

Product Short Description :

Ref #: SV29

Playfully designed, neo-rustic sideboard by Charles Dudouyt (1885-1946), featuring middle segment having two doors decorated with carved concentric circles and flanked by a pair of drawers on top of smaller doors highlighted with two rows of protruding pyramid shaped carvings. All doors fitted with spirited brass hardware typical for home entry doors which emulate anthropoid faces, as well as decorative full height hinges; drawers with smaller versions of the same pulls. In walnut.

Dining table (ref# CT36) and 6 dining chairs (ref# SC20) also available.

Age: 1930's/early 40's

Origin: France

Measurements: 86 3/4" w, 22" d, 38" h