

Ref #: SV29

Playfully designed, neo-rustic sideboard by Etienne Kohlmann (1903-1988), featuring middle segment having two doors decorated with carved concentric circles and flanked by a pair of drawers on top of smaller doors highlighted with two rows of protruding pyramid shaped carvings. All doors fitted with spirited brass hardware typical for home entry doors which emulate anthropoid faces, as well as decorative full height hinges; drawers with smaller versions of the same pulls. In walnut.

Age: 1930's/early 40's

Origin: France

Measurements: 86 3/4" w, 22" d, 38" h