

Ref #: SC21

Magnificent pair of side chairs designed by Eugene Gaillard (1862-1932) and made by Siegfried (Samuel) Bing; of extraordinarily elegant form, having pierced, padded backs rests and frames in rosewood with superb floral scroll carvings. Art Nouveau period.

Literature:

Alastair Duncan, "The Paris Salons, 1895-1914, Volume III, Furniture", Woodbridge, Suffolk, England, 1996, page 215

Alastair Duncan, "Art Nouveau Furniture", Clarkson Potter, New York, 1982, page 67

E. Mannoni & C. Bizot, "Mobilier 1900-1925", Paris, France, 1977, page 22 (for a related model)

E. Mannoni, "Meubles et Ensembles Style 1900", Paris, France. 1968, page 44

Age: Ca. 1906.

Origin: Paris, France

Measurements: 20 1/2" w, 17" d, 37 3/4" h